Dear Sir:

This is a letter of explanation and a request for help. Warrern G. Allsop, my father, took ill last fall, and died in February. I tried to discover the paperwork to keep the limestone claims current. I was unaware of this phase, and consulted our lawyer in order to proceed correctly. I have filled out a copy of the Annual Report of Mining Operations form, and have included a copy of our statement of ownership and addresses. There was no activity last year, and I am about to start a marketing program that doesn't involve any more disturbance. It is my intention to comply with all regulations, and ask your assistance in informing me of anything I need to do to keep in compliance.

Thank You,
